The “ambiance is fantastic” at Pat Kuleto’s “hip, high-end seafooder on the Embarcadero” boasting “stunning Bay vistas” from the waterfront patio, as well as a “beautiful”, “entertaining” interior complete with “floor-to-ceiling aquariums”; “inventive” (and “pricey”) fin fare is served by a “knowledgeable” staff, and while some demur at the “touristy” scene, many recommend it when you want to “impress” a “client, date” or “out-of-towner” – especially if “someone else is paying.”
